Brisbane Tennis 2020

The biggest names in world tennis are coming back to Brisbane in 2020 in an electric new tournament line-up which launches the global season. For the men, glory, passion and national pride is on the line in a bold new teams format, the ATP Cup. Meanwhile, the world's top women will contest a bigger than ever Brisbane International at the Queensland Tennis Centre.

Be one of the first people in the world to experience the emotion and excitement of the ATP Cup, a new global event which sees 24 of the world's top nations compete over two weeks in Australia. Brisbane will host 8 nations in the group stages, with all countries guaranteed 3 matches in a round robin format over 6 days. Each group winner will progress to Sydney for the ATP Cup finals, offering prizemoney and ranking points second only in size to the Grand Slams.

Adding to the world-class offering at Pat Rafter Arena is a bigger than ever WTA event in the Brisbane International, now a women's-only tournament held at the Queensland Tennis Centre from January 6 – 12. World No.1 Ash Barty has confirmed she will start her season in Brisbane, with many more top 10 players to be announced. Prizemoney for the Brisbane International has risen significantly in 2020 to become one of the richest WTA Premier events in the world.

We look forward to welcoming you to the Queensland Tennis Centre in January and giving you the first look at a bold and exciting new era of tennis in 2020.

New Year, New Era.

Brisbane International - Overview

The Brisbane International hosted WTA event is continuing its popular tradition in 2020, a year which marks an exciting new chapter in the tournament's 11 year history.

The women's event has always attracted the world's best players, with the city serving as an ideal launch into the Australian summer of tennis, and of course, the Australian Open.

This summer, the women's Brisbane International is set to get even bigger with an increase in prizemoney to a pool of $1.5million (AUD), guaranteed to draw many of the world's top 10 and an exciting new generation of player to Brisbane.

"The WTA event at the Brisbane International is growing in 2020, with more top 10 players sure to start their summer in Brisbane as the tournament's offering increases, and our stadium is revamped for a global audience.

From Aussie favourite Kim Clijsters to superstars Serena Williams, Maria Sharapova and Victoria Azarenka, our Honor Roll is one to be proud of, and there are plenty of new names yet to be etched on the Evonne Goolagong Trophy.
